PSPw0rm.v2.0.Magic.ISO.and.YBox.359.9.hit.outlook.lan.messenger.full. PSPw0rm V2.0 Magic ISO And YBox 359.9 Hit My friend in Uganda posted that he saw this (www.micr0.org) scam on his facebook. I just have to report this one. I got a similar mail from Laptogirl. But I do not think that's the same scam. I had a similar experience, with some variations. Scam #1 I got a cold-call from an individual in a foreign country. He claimed that he had been robo-calling people and he needed to verify my number to avoid identity theft. Then I was told that he could not find my number listed (not within a few seconds, at any rate) and therefore needed to verify it to make sure that I wasn't on a different carrier. Scam #2 A few months ago I received a similar request from a family member, although I was supposed to forward it to him. As it turns out, my family member was a victim of identity theft; someone had gone to his old address and pretended to be him, and a bill for a new mobile phone and credit card had been mailed to that address. He got a lot of similar mail, and had a lot of work to do to clean up his account. One of the most difficult things was notifying the CRAs (credit bureaus) that their records for this individual were incorrect. I'm not sure how many of them had to be updated. I was lucky in this case, because there were only 2 bureaus. If I had to guess, this sort of thing happens at least once a month. Unfortunately, you aren't going to find a
